New Parent Governor September 2019 Elections

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Caroline Jones for her commitment and support towards the school in her role as Governor. Caroline has stepped down from her position with effect from the end of this term and therefore we are now recruiting for her replacement. On Monday, two letters will be circulated to parents in Year 3—Year 5 and our new parents in September (Year 2). One will be to explain the election process and the other one is to nominate a candidate.
